Such motion for division of the question shall be honored only upon a second to the motion and a majority vote of the Tribal Council. If a majority of the Tribal Council vote to divide the question, then each resolution so divided shall be considered as a separate agenda item.

It is this vote that determines the qualifications for citizenship have been met in accordance with the requirements of Article III of the Constitution.

(2) Prior to accepting an applicant for citizenship, the Tribal Council may, at its discretion, request that any applicant provide a Certificate of Indian Blood to supplement his/her application. The request must be in writing and state the Tribal Council’s reasons for requiring a Certificate of Indian Blood for this applicant.
